OUR FOCUS

WorkMatters was founded as a non-profit organization in northwest Arkansas in 2004 because of a burden for business people living one way on Sunday, and a different way Monday – Friday.

Our passion is to help men and women around the world to discover a higher purpose for their work, to engage in their own personal faith and work journey, and to serve others in the process.

WHAT WE DO

There is more...but this will get you started.
